

Multi-Length Bios for Professional Use

Updated: December 2, 2017

25 WORD BIO

Sean holds a diploma in Professional Writing from Algonquin College in Ottawa, Canada. His debut novel was signed with NineStar Press in November 2017.

50 WORD BIO

Sean holds a diploma in Professional Writing from Algonquin College in Ottawa, Canada. His debut novel was signed with NineStar Press in November 2017. He runs the Pontiac & Ottawa Valley Writers' Circle and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Pontiac Artists' Association.

100 WORD BIO

Sean holds a diploma in Professional Writing from Algonquin College in Ottawa, Canada. His debut novel was signed with NineStar Press in November 2017. He has another four novels outlined and is working on draft one of a fifth.

In December 2016, he launched the Pontiac & Ottawa Valley Writers' Circle and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Pontiac Artists' Association.

Sean lives on a farm in Bristol, Quebec, with his husband, Glen; their dogs, Suzie, Maxwell and Walker; their goats, Tyrion and Arya; and their llamas, Shadow and Angie.

150 WORD BIO

Sean holds a diploma in Professional Writing from Algonquin College (Ottawa, 2009). He found his love of writing at the age of ten when he released his first miniseries via Duo-Tang folder to his family and friends. His debut novel was signed with NineStar Press in November 2017. He has another four novels outlined and is working on draft one of a fifth. Common themes in his writing include addiction, mental health, sexuality, grief and hope.

In December 2016, he launched the Pontiac & Ottawa Valley Writers' Circle and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Pontiac Artists' Association.

Sean lives on a farm in Bristol, Quebec, with his husband, Glen; their dogs, Suzie, Maxwell and Walker; their goats, Tyrion and Arya; and their llamas, Shadow and Angie.

He loves laughter, games and has an impressive DVD and book collection that he is always happy to display.